

HONOR THE BRAVE 71ST--ITS SURVIVORS MARCH UP BROADWAY TO-DAY

PRIVATE WILLIAM J. WILSON.
12TH REGT. N.Y. VOL. CO. B.

PRIVATE HENRY HECKLER
71ST REGT. N.Y. VOL. CO. F.

SERGEANT J.F. CAMPBELL
TROOP B. ROUGH RIDERS
FROM PHOENIX ARIZONA.

THREE FACES THAT SHOW THE CRUEL SUFFERING INCOMPETENCY HAS PUT UPON HEROES OF THE WAR.
(SKETCHED ON THEIR HOSPITAL COTS IN THIS CITY YESTERDAY.)

300 COME BACK; 1,100 WENT TO WAR.

Shout To-day for the Gallant Seventy-first as the Boys March to Their Armory.

PROCLAMATION BY THE ACTING MAYOR.

Acting Mayor Guggenheimer sent the following message from Long Branch last night:
"Acting Mayor Guggenheimer, having been informed this evening of the proposed arrival in the morning of the Seventy-first Regiment, would respectfully suggest that owners of houses along the proposed route decorate them as fully as time will permit. He also asks the people to turn out in full force to welcome our brave and returning heroes."

PROGRAMME OF THE SEVENTY-FIRST'S HOME COMING.

Break camp at Montauk Point at 6 a. m. to-day.
Leave camp on railroad train at 7 a. m.
Arrive at Long Island City at 11:30 a. m.
Disembark at Battery at 1 p. m. (probably).
Greeted by Veteran Association of the Seventy-first Regiment, under command of General E. A. McAlpin and the officers of the One Hundred and Seventy-first Regiment, under command of Colonel A. T. Francis.
Line of March—Up Whitehall street to Broadway, to Waverley place, to Washington square, passing under the monument, up Fifth avenue to Thirty-fourth street to the Seventy-first Regiment Armory, at Thirty-fourth street and Park avenue.
The Seventy-first Regiment and Eben's bands to furnish the music.

FINAL arrangements for the home coming of the gallant Seventy-first were completed yesterday afternoon. Plans were perfected by General E. A. McAlpin, president of the Veteran Association of the Seventy-first Regiment, who went to Camp Wikoff yesterday in order that there might be no hitch in the programme.

General McAlpin left Long Island City at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, and as soon as he reached Camp Wikoff held a conference with Colonel Downs and the other officers of the Seventy-first Regiment. Then he hurried to the nearest telephone and rang up the Seventy-first Regiment Armory, where Lieutenant-Colonel C. T. Homer and other officers were waiting to hear from him.

To Colonel Homer General McAlpin gave the corrected line of march and other details of the regiment's departure from Camp Wikoff and the reception in this city.

It will be but a poor, weary, worn-out percentage of the gallant 1,104 men who left the Seventy-first Regiment armory last May that will form ranks at the Battery to-day. For instance, only six men out of the original 1,104 will muster as Company I, and only six will be able to represent Company M in line. Company H will have twenty-eight men, and Company K the same. A number of the fatigued men returned to Camp Wikoff yesterday to take part in the triumphant parade.

All the men who have reported unable to march turned in their arms and accoutrements to the ordnance officer at Camp Wikoff yesterday. The men who go in the parade will be in light marching order, rifles, empty belts, no canteens, haversacks or bedding rolls.
It will be a case of a maimed regiment reaching up Broadway. The uniforms the men wore in action were taken from them and destroyed at the quarantine inspection. Some of them have new suits of army blue, some retain the white-piped New York militia blouse, and others are clothed in the brown canvas uniforms of the tropical campaign faced with the colors of all arms of the service. But the Seventy-first does not mind its clothes. It will step just as proudly, or more so, behind its band, a tattered remnant of a regiment—with every survivor a hero—than it did when in battle service uniforms, with full ranks of athletic men, it last marched down Broadway on the way to the war.

Veterans of Cuba Will Ride.

The men who went through the Cuban campaign will not march from the Battery to their armory as was first intended. The men are too weak to stand the ordeal. They will be carried up as far as Waverley place in cable cars, and only the recruits and the veteran escort will march the full distance. At Waverley place the whole regiment will form, the Cuban heroes in one detachment, the recruits in another. Thus aligned the Seventy-first will pass in triumph up Broadway to Fifth avenue, thence to the armory. The men will break camp at 6 o'clock this morning. They will march to the railroad depot, where they will go at once aboard a special train, which will start as soon as the regiment can be loaded. The train is expected to arrive at Long Island City at 11:30 a. m. There the men will be met by a committee of the Veterans Association, consisting of Colonel C. T. Homer, Colonel Eugene H. Conklin and Colonel D. W. G. Ward. Members of the Seventy-first Women's Relief Corps will also be on hand and will serve refreshments, including bouillon, hot coffee and rolls to the soldiers.

On Transports to Battery.

The Seventy-first will march aboard transports which will carry them to the Battery. It is expected that the regiment will be disembarked by 1 o'clock. It is estimated that 300 members of the Seventy-first Veteran Association will be on hand to greet the returning heroes. The veterans will be under command of General McAlpin, the president of the association. The veterans have given a hearty response to President McAlpin's call to report to the Battery as an escort to the Seventy-first, and many veterans who live out of town have notified Secretary James B. Smith of their intention to be on hand. The hour for their reporting has been changed from 11:30 a. m. to 12 m. All the officers of the One Hundred and Seventy-first Regiment, under command of Colonel A. T. Francis, will also meet the Seventy-first at the Battery.

The March Up Broadway.

The march will be begun as soon after 1 p. m. as possible. The veterans and the

Johnny Comes Marching Home Again

How the Seventy-first Will March Home.

The gallant boys of the Seventy-first will go from Camp Wikoff on the cars to Long Island City. From there they will be taken on transports to the Battery, where they will be welcomed by veterans. The procession will move up Broadway to Waverley place, to Fifth avenue, to Thirty-fourth street, to the armory.

One Hundred and Seventy-first's officers will lead on foot, escorting the 300 heroes. The Seventy-first Regiment and Eben's bands will furnish the music. There will be a number of ambulances to carry such of the soldiers as are too weak to parade. They will march up Broadway to Waverley place, to Washington square, passing under the arch, thence up Fifth avenue to Thirty-fourth street, to the Seventy-first Regiment Armory. Ambulances will accompany them on the march to the armory to pick up any soldier who may be overcome.

There will be no ceremony whatever at the armory. The men as soon as they get there will have a collation of sandwiches, hot and cold bouillon, coffee and milk. The refreshments will be served by members of the Seventy-first's Women's Relief Corps, who themselves will prepare many of the delicacies. The refreshments will be placed upon long tables on the main floor of the armory.

The collation will be prepared for two men, the number that it is expected will take part in the parade. As soon as the Seventy-first heroes have eaten, they will be taken to their homes in the quickest way possible. Those who are too weak to walk will be driven in carriages or ambulances.

Great crowds and unbounded enthusiasm are looked for from the Battery all along the line of march. The police have made careful arrangements for the proper handling of the multitude.

Asks the People to Decorate.

Acting Mayor Guggenheimer sent a message from Long Branch last night suggesting that the residents along the line of march decorate their houses as fully as the time would permit. He also asked the people to turn out in full force to welcome the heroes.

BLACK GETS STATE TROOPS SENT HOME.

The Governor Secures a Thirty Days' Furlough for the Sixty-fifth Regiment.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Governor Black could have been ordered and charged to the $50,000,000 National Defence Fund. Quite a large amount of that fund is yet on hand, and when an emergency arises again it will be used to purchase the articles desired at any camp, whether for hospital patients, convalescents or sick in the ranks. The President will approve the accounts, and as he is presently the disbursing officer of the funds the approval will go without question.

The statute law provides a specific ration for soldiers, but a commutation at the discretion of the Commissary General is allowed for those in the hospitals and on the sick list. When General Wheeler sent for certain delicacies for the soldiers at Montauk Point, the only way under the law was to commute the soldier's ration, worth about nineteen cents, to sixty cents for the purchase of what was needed. No one thought then of using a part of the National Defence Fund. Now it can be applied.

On his return from Camp Dun-Loring this evening Governor Black was asked his opinion of the condition at the camp.

"I do not think," he said, "there is anything I care to say, because what might be said would be regarded as a matter of personal opinion. The impression made upon one observer would not be the impression made on another. What we went to the camp for were results, and these we have obtained. The Sixty-fifth New York is to have gone to Middletown, Pa., to-morrow, but I have secured a change of orders so that this regiment will go to Buffalo.

We will also endeavor to have the matter of their transportation arranged to-night. If we do not succeed in getting them off in the morning they will be sent Tuesday.

What I wanted when I came was to get the Sixty-fifth home. They will be mustered out at the end of thirty days. We will go from here to-night to Chatham, then to Huntsville and Lexington, and return here within five days.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Governor Black could have been ordered and charged to the $50,000,000 National Defence Fund. Quite a large amount of that fund is yet on hand, and when an emergency arises again it will be used to purchase the articles desired at any camp, whether for hospital patients, convalescents or sick in the ranks. The President will approve the accounts, and as he is presently the disbursing officer of the funds the approval will go without question.

The statute law provides a specific ration for soldiers, but a commutation at the discretion of the Commissary General is allowed for those in the hospitals and on the sick list. When General Wheeler sent for certain delicacies for the soldiers at Montauk Point, the only way under the law was to commute the soldier's ration, worth about nineteen cents, to sixty cents for the purchase of what was needed. No one thought then of using a part of the National Defence Fund. Now it can be applied.

On his return from Camp Dun-Loring this evening Governor Black was asked his opinion of the condition at the camp.

"I do not think," he said, "there is anything I care to say, because what might be said would be regarded as a matter of personal opinion. The impression made upon one observer would not be the impression made on another. What we went to the camp for were results, and these we have obtained. The Sixty-fifth New York is to have gone to Middletown, Pa., to-morrow, but I have secured a change of orders so that this regiment will go to Buffalo.

We will also endeavor to have the matter of their transportation arranged to-night. If we do not succeed in getting them off in the morning they will be sent Tuesday.

What I wanted when I came was to get the Sixty-fifth home. They will be mustered out at the end of thirty days. We will go from here to-night to Chatham, then to Huntsville and Lexington, and return here within five days.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily frighten the mothers, sisters or sweethearts of the soldiers. The soldiers were provided for in such a way so that no fault can be found with it. I have not had half as good an accommodation in my camping in the Adirondacks. If the men were there on a picnic or an excursion no one would have found fault with it. But this is war, and that, I suppose, is why the conditions are criticized.

Governor Black said some of the soldiers would be sent to Plee Island. He had not heard from any official source here that Montauk Point was to be abandoned. It was originally intended as a detention camp and when the soldiers had been mustered out or had recuperated, there would be no use for the camp there. The Governor declined absolutely to say a word about New York politics. He would not say whether or not he would run again or whether there had been any agreement of any kind between him and Senator Platt. He is accompanied by Dr. DeWitt, Health Officer of New York, and an aide.

As to the New York troops in camp and in the hospital at Camp Alger, they were well taken care of. The conditions were not as they were represented by the newspapers. The only result of such publications has been to unnecessarily